Payment at Sankt Knud Lavard School.

The school has a registration fee of DKK 1.000, - which is paid for the 1st child and covers for any subsequent siblings.

You pay tuition fees for 12 months.

The school fees are differentiated for primary and secondary education (7-9 class), where the payment is 100 DKK more expensive.

The school's SFO payment is spread over 11 months. If you use SFO during the opening weeks in July, there is a small payment for it.

The school has sibling moderation on both school and SFO payments.

Preschool SFO: In May-June up to the start of school, you pay Lyngby-Taarbæk's SFO rate. First, from August, during which the child transitions to a bra. class, one pays the school's rate.

During school hours, there will be payment for camp school in 6th grade (an amount equivalent to max. 2 x school fees) and study trip in 9th grade. (an amount equivalent to max. 3 x school fees).

In the 5th grade, students must bring a laptop for school use.

Class fund: Once a year, a small amount is paid for class trips. Typical max DKK 400,-.

Registration:

This is done by contacting the school by phone or by mail.
